TO my old friends and the public generally, I am pleased to say, that I am now prepared at my new Establishment, the Novelty Works, to execute in the very best manner, Locomotive and Stationary Engines, Saw and Grist Mills, Mill Gearing, Machinery of every description, Iron and Brass Castings in every variety, Screw Cutting, of any desired length and calibre; having the most improved machinery for the purpose to be found North or South.

The Novelty Works are under the exclusive management of a practical Machinist, Mr. H. G. BRUCE, who has no superior as an Engineer and Machinist in any country. This establishment was erected exclusively for the benefit of the Citizens of North Carolina, and I can assure them that they need not go out of the State for anything in the above line of business, as I challenge the World to produce a finer STEAM ENGINE or a better MILL than can be purchased at my establishment.

I am now manufacturing several large and small

STEAM ENGINES

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS, FOR 1851-'2.

ISAAC PROCTER, Merchant Tailor, (Successor to the firm of Oliver & Procter) having purchased out the entire interest of Thos. M. Oliver, in the late firm of Oliver & Procter, I avail myself of the very first opportunity to inform the patrons of the said firm of the fact and to solicit from them the continuance of their support. I have just received a beautiful supply of goods, selected by Mr. Oliver, with great care, from the latest importations, mebracing

Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings of every colour dan grade, Dress-Shirts, Under-Shirts, Drawers, Cravats, Handkerchiefs, &c., &c.

In fact, everything usually kept by Merchant Tailors or Clothiers. I shall be assisted by Mr. Geo. L. Gould, an experienced Coat cutter, (and a pupil of Mr. Oliver's—in fact, having been Oliver and Procter's coat-cutter for the last fourteen months.) I shall have charge of the pantaloons and vest department myself, and I have had exclusive charge of it in the late firm for the last five years.

Everything will be done that can be done, to give satisfaction and to render the establishment popular with its patrons. Profoundly thankful for the patronage so liberally bestowed upon us as a firm, I shall endeavor by assiduous attention to business and a desire to please, to merit its continuance.

ISAAC PROCTER.

ALSO,

ON HAND AND AM RECEIVING, daily, a large assortment of CLOTHING, of every description and style, of my own and Northern manufacture—all of which, being made under my own supervision, I can fully recommend. I. P.

Raleigh, Oct. 24th, 1851. 103—

To my Friends and Customers in North Carolina.

HAVING made arrangements to leave the State, at furthest by the first of December, and having disposed of my interest to Isaac Procter, (my partner for the last eight years,) I take pleasure in recommending him to those who have stood by me so long, as a gentlemen every way worthy of their confidence and support.

I look upon Mr. Procter, without attempting to disparage others, and what I say now must be believed, (being totally disconnected with him in business) as being the very best cutter I ever saw. He will be assisted by Geo. L. Gould, a pupil of mine, who has been cutting all the Coats made up for our customers for the last fourteen months, and has no superior in that department. I have left in the concern all the patterns I have of my customers scattered all over the State, and they may rely upon being as faithfully served, having their cloths, as well cut and made, and the quality of the materials just such as would be furnished, were 'The BUG,' present in "propria persona." I have laboured hard to build up a business in North Carolina, and desire that those who have patronised me should continue to uphold my late partner, particularly when assured by me, that they will be as well served as they were under the administration of OLIVER & PROCTER.

THOMAS M. OLIVER.

LARGE SALE,

Valuable Real & Personal Property.

Commencing 12th January, 1852.

THE Subscribers, as Executors of the late Richard Hines, offer for sale the very valuable Plantation he died possessed of, containing about 2700 acres, a little over half of which is cleared and in a high state of cultivation. The Plantation is situated on the north side of Tar River, in Edgecombe County, six or seven miles east of the Railroad, and nine miles above Tarborough, adjoining the lands of Richard Harrison, and others. There is on the premises a large and comfortable dwelling with eight rooms and all the necessary out-houses and fixtures of the best kind and in good order.

We will not go into a detailed statement of the superiority of this Plantation, but invite all persons wishing to purchase valuable land to examine this. A plat of the land with a survey of the cleared portions is left in the hands of Mr. Isaac B. Farmer, on the premises, who is well acquainted with it and will give any information to persons wishing to purchase. We will sell it in one tract or divide it into two or three. If not disposed of at private sale, before the 12th of next January, we will, on that day, at 2 o'clock, P. M., on the premises, offer it at public sale to the highest bidder. It has not been necessary for a Physician to visit it during this year.

We will also sell at the same place, one hundred and ninety negroes, of the most valuable kind; among them are three carpenters, (one of these a Wheel-wright,) two Blacksmiths, one painter, three first-rate house servants, (one of them a seamstress,) a good ostler and some of the best cotton-pickers in the Stae.

Also, the Stock and Crop, consisting of about 1500 barrels of Corn, 100 stacks of Fodder, two hundred bushels of Rye, four hundred bushels of Peas, three hundred and fifty fat hogs, 250 out hogs, 68 head of cattle, of the most improved breed.

Among them are many fine milk cows, and nine yoke of young oxen, large and well broke; 1 pair of horses, 1 pair splendid thorough bred fillies, 3 blooded mares, 2 very fine ponies, 150 head of sheep, the seed from near 400,000 pounds of cotton, two Gins, one wheat thrasher, three saddles and bridles, forty casks of plaster and lime, eight wagons, ten carts, thirty-six sides of leather, household and kitchen furniture, and all the farming implements of every description. LEATHER FOR FALL TRADE, AT WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

WE respectfully announce to our friends and the trade, generally, that we have determined to spare no efforts on our part to give Petersburg a Leather and Finding Establishment, whose stock shall compare favorably with that of any house, North or South. We are receiving from the importers and manufacturers of the Northern Cities one of the largest and best selected stocks we have ever known in this market, and we pledge ourselves to sell our goods as low as any South of New York, and many articles as low, if not lower, than they are to be had, even there, as we have now in full operation a large and well arranged Tannery, from which we shall be receiving Leather regularly.

We have also Brogans of our own manufacture, which we warrant a superior article.

Also, Shoemakers' Tools and Lasts, together with many other articles usually found in similar establishments, all of which will be sold in accordance with the above statement; and the only way we can prove this, is for purchasers to come and examine for themselves, and we shall be content to abide the result.

For the Standard.

On the opening of Caswell County Court, on Tuesday, the 30th of December, 1851, the death of James N. Fuller, Esq., being announced, leave was asked and obtained by the members of the bar to hold a meeting in the Court room in consequence thereof.

On motion, John W. Norwood, Esq. was appointed Chairman and Thomas Ruffin, Jr. Secretary.

The Chairman having explained the object of the meeting, John Kerr, Esq. presented on behalf of the brethren of the deceased, the following preamble and Resolutions:

The members of the bar have heard with feelings of the deepest sorrow, of the death of James N. Fuller, Esq.,—a young lawyer of promise and a gentleman in every sense of the term—" fulfilled of nobleness, courtesy and honor." He died in this County, on Tuesday, the 22d instant, of scarlet fever; and his relatives and numerous friends are left to deplore the loss of one whose warm and generous impulses and guileless nature made him a universal favorite: whose place in society and in the affections of all who knew him, it will be difficult, if not impossible to supply. In view of this melancholy dispensation of divine providence, his professional brethren Resolve,

1st. That they will cherish the memory of their lost and lamented associate, and in token of their sorrow for his loss and respect for his character, they will wear the usual badge of mourning for the space of thirty days.

2. That they tender to the parents and other near and dear relatives of the deceased, the expression of their sincere condolence upon this occasion of their affliction to them.

3d. That a copy of these Resolutions, signed by the Chairman of this meeting, be transmitted by him to the parents of the deceased, and that copies be also furnished to the Editors of the Milton Chronicle, Raleigh Register and Standard, with a request that they may be published in their respective papers.

4th. That these proceedings be presented to the Court at its first meeting, with a request that they be entered on the minutes; which Resolutions were unanimously adopted by the meeting.

On motion of Samuel P. Hill, Esq., the meeting adjourned. J. W. NORWOOD, Ch'n.

T. RUFFIN, Jr., Sec'y.

At the reopening of the Court, Mr. Norwood presented the proceedings of the bar, and moved the presiding Justices to allow them to be entered on the minutes, which was readily granted by the Court, and the Clerk ordered to take notice of the same.

ITEMS OF HUNGARIAN NEWS. A few days ago, says the Pesth Naplo, a vender of engravings made his appearance in the capital of Hungary, and peddled his wares through the streets with very little success. Among his stock was the representation of a steam vessel anchored in a quiet cove, and discouraged with his indifferent custom, the dealer boldly named the picture "The Steamer Mississippi, in the Harbor of Spezzia." In an hour or two the whole batch was gone, at prices ranging from one to three florins!

From the same authority we learn that the Austrian Minister of Public Works has at last consented to bestow some attention upon public improvements in that kingdom. It has been determined to join the Pesth railway with that of Gallicia, by means of a branch from Miscolex to Experies. A branch of the Szeged-Ezegled road is likewise to be extended to Baja.

Several communes, of the County of Borsod, refused to admit the Royal Census Commissioners within their limits, under the impression that a new levy of taxes was to follow. The help of a few military companies was requisite to restore order.

All the members of the Honved force who had attained the age of 38 years have been disbanded.

Gen. Haynau has been obliged, by the ill-will of his neighbors, to offer all his Hungarian estates for sale.

The Imperial Police have been very much on the alert of late, owing

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
Office of Secretary of State.

I WILLIAM HILL, Secretary of State, in and for the State of North Carolina, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and perfect copy of an Act of the General Assembly of this State, drawn off from the orginal on file in this office. Given under my hand, this 31st day of December, 1851.

WM. HILL, Sec'y of State.

AND WHEREAS, the said Act provides for amending the Constitution of the State of North Carolina so as to confer on every qualified voter for the House of Commons the right to vote also for the Senate;

Now, therefore, to the end that it may be made known that if the aforesaid amendment to the Constitution shall be agreed to by two thirds of the whole representation in each house of the next General Assembly, it will then be submitted to the people for ratification, I have issued this my Proclamation in conformity with the provisions of the before recited Act.

In testimony whereof, DAVID S. REID, Governor of the State of North Carolina; hath hereunto set his hand and caused the Great Seal of said State to be affixed.

Done at the City of Raleigh, on the thirty-first day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and fifty one, and in the 76th year of our Independence.

By the Governor, DAVID S. REID.
THOMAS SETTLE, Jr. Private Sec'y.

Persons into whose hands this Proclamation may fall, will please see that a copy of it is posted up in the Court House of their respective Counties.

☞ All the newspapers in the State will publish the above not oftener than once a week till the next August election.

THE PRESIDENCY.

It is not our intention, at present, to go at length into the question of the Presidency. The time has not yet arrived for discussing the principles which will be involved in the contest, but when that time comes we shall endeavor, as heretofore, to do our duty.

We regard the election of a Democratic President as a fixed fact, provided the party should remain united, and not allow itself to be unduly affected by preferences for sections or men.

Our principles are not only in the ascendant, but they are the established policy of the country. A Whig President does not venture to recommend any material interference with them, nor do the Whigs of the country generally offer to them any active opposition. These principles, embodied in measures, stand self-vindicated before the people; and the people, having endorsed them after the fullest discussion and the most mature deliberation, are prepared to adhere to them, in our opinion, through all the changes of the future.

It is the duty of the Democratic party to bring before the people, in opening the campaign, a sound, able, and trust-worthy statesman—a man who will have a mind of his own in discharging his duties as President, and who will discharge those duties without reference to cliques, factions, or sections, and for the good of the whole country. It does not become us to say who that statesman shall be—we leave that to be determined by the National Convention. We can only say that we stand upon the old platform, and will support the nominee cheerfully, provided he be sound upon the great question of Slavery.

We have made these remarks mainly with the view of having our position correctly understood. We shall continue to do justice to all the distinguished men who have been spoken of in connection with the nomination; but our motto is, fair play for all and special devotion to none. The time between the nomination and election will be ample for discussion, and for bringing to public view the merits and qualifications of the nominee. This press, we repeat, is pledged to no man in advance; nor can we perceive that any material benefit would result to the party generally, by committing itself to this man or that. We have agreed to call a Convention, and let us abide its action. We may all have our personal preferences, and we may express them, if we choose; but let us do nothing which may be calculated to distract the party, or to interrupt the friendly and harmonious feeling which now prevails.

CITY ELECTION.

An election will be held in this City, on Monday next, the 19th, for an Intendant and seven Commissioners.

By an act passed at the last session of the Legislature, it was provided "that no person shall be entitled to vote at any election for Intendant and Commissioners of the City of Raleigh, unless he shall have resided within the limits of the said City for at least six months, and in the Ward in which he offers to vote at least ten days next preceding the day of election, and paid City taxes within twelve months preceding the day of election, or, being a non-resident, shall own, in fee simple, real estate in the City of Raleigh, and shall have possessed said real estate at least six months preceding the day of election."

We publish the above for the information of the citizens.

A Special Term of Wake Superior Court is being held here this week, his Honor Judge Battle presiding. The celebrated Outlaw will case, it is supposed, will be tried. A number of witnesses from a distance are in attendance.

KOSSUTH IN WASHINGTON.

On Wednesday last the Congressional Dinner to Kossuth took place at the National Hotel, Washington City, and was such, says the Union, as to do honor to the Congress of a Republic like our own, in receiving the representative of Republican liberty in Europe.

Hon. W. R. King presided. The President, the Judiciary, the Navy, the Army, and Hungary were toasted, and the last toast called up Kossuth, who delivered a magnificent Speech. Messrs. Webster, Douglas, and Cass were also called out, all of whom spoke briefly but eloquently. Mr. Webster showed that Hungary was entitled to be a free and independent nation, and he repeated what he had said in favor of the independence of Greece, concluding by offering the following toast:

"Hungarian Independence: Hungary controlling her own independence and destiny, as a distinct nationality among the nations."

Judge Douglas spoke of our rights to intervene to sustain the law of nations; but he placed England, while she remains a monarchy, on the side of the despotic powers of Europe, and declared that she could not justly call upon us for protection from the Cossack while her Irish patriots were banished from their homes. He concluded with the following toast:

"Hungary: When she shall make her next struggle for liberty, may the friends of freedom throughout the world proclaim to the ears of European despots, Hands off; a clear field; a fair fight—and God will protect the right."

Gen. Cass declared himself willing as a member of Congress, to say, in the name of the American people, that every nation under heaven has a right to unfurl the banner of freedom and to maintain it. No man, wearing a hat or a crown, had any right to interfere with a nation so struggling for liberty. Circumstances at the time must decide whether our declaration shall be sustained by force.

On the ever-glorious 8th of January the Democracy in Washington City assembled in Jackson Hall, to celebrate the battle of New Orleans, and at the same time to listen to the great Hungarian, who had promised to be present. J. D. Hoover, Esq., presided. Among the invited guests were Gov. Kossuth, Hon. Lewis Cass, Hon. Stephen A. Douglas, Hon. Henry Dodge, Gen. Joseph Lane, Hon. Sam Houston, Maj. Donelson, Mr. Ritchie, and others. The memories of Washington and Jackson were toasted, and F. P. Blair, Esq. then delivered an Address on behalf of the Jackson Association, concluding with the following: "The exiles from Europe—Liberty and Louis Kossuth." Kossuth arose amid tremendous applause, and spoke for some time with his usual force, beauty, and eloquence. A number of toasts, in honor of distinguished Democrats, then followed, and Speeches were delivered by Messrs. Cass, Douglas, and Lane, and by Maj. Donelson of the Washington Union. The occasion was brilliant and imposing, and every way worthy of the gallant and able men assembled.

We may, hereafter, lay before our readers some extracts from the Speeches delivered on these two occasions. We should like to do so to-day, but our lack of space prevents us.

Kossuth has been received at Washington with much cordiality and enthusiasm. The Washington Republic, the personal and political organ of the President, says:

"Apart from these circumstances—drawbacks, of course, in Kossuth's judgment—his visit can scarcely be considered otherwise than satisfactory. His recognition by the President, by all the Executive officers, by both branches of Congress, and by all classes of citizens, is an honor that would be awarded to no emperor living, and may well inspire him with hope and joy. But its significance is not confined to honor, however great. It is an emphatic acknowledgment of a man whose name is to "a gallows nailed" in testimony of the force of his struggle against the unjust sway of Austria. It is an endorsement of the claims of Hungarian nationality—a justification of the principles for which Hungary struggled—and a protest against the foul treachery and tyranny by which her people were for the time vanquished and trampled under foot.

It is more still: it is an anticipatory declaration, loud and indignant, against future intervention by absolutist powers, and as such will go forth to the world, sustained by the moral force of a people powerful and free. In this respect, Kossuth has received all that reasonable men could desire; and, whatever his feelings on other points, he will return to Europe fortified and strengthened by the events attendant upon his visit here."

NORTH-CAROLINA RAIL ROAD.

The Board of Directors of the North Carolina Rail Road met at Hillsborough on the 8th instant—present, Messrs. Morehead, Saunders, Ellis, Wilson, Means, Holt, and Jones.

We learn that the President of the Road was authorized to negotiate for the purchase of iron for the Road, and lay the result of his inquiries before the Board at its next meeting; or, if he think it best, to conclude a contract of purchase. It was determined that the rails should be of the T. pattern, eighteen feet long, and weighing sixty pounds to the yard. He was also authorized to purchase two twenty ton locomotives, with a set of freight cars for each—the one to be used on the Eastern and the other on the Western end of the line.

Information being furnished the Board that there were now actually employed on the Road from Charlotte to Salisbury, 629 men and 201 boys, and it being made to appear probable that the whole of that part of the Road would be graded during the present year, the President was authorized to contract for the delivery of timber for the superstructure along that part of the line, by the first of January.

A requisition was made for 30 per cent. of the capital stock of the Company, to be paid in by the first Monday in July next, by instalments of 10 per cent. every two months between this time and the first Monday in July. We learn that the stockholders are paying in promptly the last call of 10 per cent.

All contracts, we learn, will be received from the contractors as soon as they are finished.

We learn that the work was found to be in a rapid state of progress, and that its condition is as flattering as the most sanguine of its friends could have anticipated.

BIDDING FOR STATE BONDS.

We learn that the bids for the State bonds recently advertised by the Public Treasurer, were opened by him last Monday in the presence of the Comptroller of State and C. Dewey, Esq. The successful bids ranged from 1 to 2¼ per cent. premium. The whole amount bid, was about two hundred thousand dollars, mostly by citizens of the State. Mr. Courts immediately despatched letters to the successful bidders.

All the bonds thus far sold, by Mr. Courts, have been taken, with one exception, by citizens of our own State; and we learn also the gratifying fact that that officer has thus far realized for the State in premiums between two thousand and twenty-five hundred dollars.

We learn that Ephraim Holmes, a free man of color, died in this place on Monday morning last, from injuries received by a blow on his leg, given by John Mitchell, free colored. Mitchell, we learn, is in Jail.

A writer in the last Greensborough Patriot nominates David A. Barnes, Esq., of Northampton, as the next Whig candidate for Governor!

GEN. CAVAIGNAC.

The Paris correspondent of the New York Express, under date Dec. 18, gives the following interesting account of some eventful scenes in the life of Gen. Cavaignac:

"A STORY OF CAVAIGNAC. You have heard of the engagement of Gen. Cavaignac to M'lle. Odier, daughter of the banker of that name. But you have probably not heard of the romantic adventure which led to their betrothal. The General had long been a friend of the family, and had often seen and conversed with the young lady, without ever paying her especial attention, or entertaining other ideas than such as intimacy and friendship might warrant. One day at dinner, the engagement of a gentleman of fifty to a girl of eighteen was mentioned, and Cavaignac took occasion to express his strong disapprobation of such misalliances. He said that he believed that nothing could counteract the injurious effect of such disparity of age, and that happiness in a match of the kind was out of the question. Hardly had he uttered these words than M'lle. Odier, turning pale, fell back in her chair, and was carried, fainting, from the room. For many days she concealed the truth, ascribing her illness to the heat of the room, &c. But at last she told a friend, that she had for a long time looked upon Cavaignac as her idol upon the earth; his fame as a General, his rank in his party, his control, for many months over the destinies of France, and more than all, his noble and generous character, had won her heart, and she had suffered herself to believe that she should one day be his wife, till he had expressed his disapproval, in such strong language, of marriages between persons of greatly different ages. Cavaignac was nearly fifty, she was not yet twenty; it was evident that the General would consider such an alliance as highly improper, and not for a moment to be thought of. Cavaignac was made acquainted with the cause of the young lady's faintness at table, and after deliberation, waived his scruples and abandoned his principles. They are now engaged, and only wait for better times, and perhaps for the moments when they shall tread another soil, and see another flag waving, and other stars shining over their heads, to be made incorporate, two in one.

On the night of the first of December, Cavaignac played whist at M. Odier's house till one o'clock in the morning; the next day he was on his way to Ham.

CAVAIGNAC—THEIRS—LOUIS NAPOLEON. Dec. 18. Gen. Cavaignac has been set at liberty. He occupied at Ham, the room formerly tenanted by Louis Napoleon. I had hoped this distinction would have been reserved for M. Thiers. It certainly would have been a good joke for posterity, to have read in the history of our times, that in 1840, M. Thiers nabbed Louis Napoleon at Boulogne, and handed him over to his successor, M. Guziot, by whom he was sent to Ham, and that in 1851 the tables were turned and Louis Napoleon reciprocated the compliment, by sending this same Thiers to Ham, in his turn. This would have been a beautiful exemplification of the doctrine of rotation. But the beauty of the joke has been spoiled, by locking him up at Vincennes for a few days, and then giving him a safe conduct across the frontiers. If men may be arrested at the will of a despot and imprisoned without a trial, there would seem to be a sort of retributive justice in picking out the worst and most deserving of a prison. By common consent, M. Theirs is a man without God, without law, without faith, without country, without fireside."

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

We have the latest news from Europe by the steamer Cambria, which arrived at Halifax on the 7th instant.

From England we have the intelligence that Lord Palmerston has resigned as Minister of Foreign Affairs, and Lord Granville has been appointed in his place.

France was tranquil. Napoleon was everywhere triumphant, and his majority, it was thought, would exceed that of 1847. The polls in 68 departments give yeas 5,000,000, nays 600,000. Many of the Deputies, heretofore arrested, have been set at liberty.

The Queen of Spain was delivered on the 20th December, of a robust Princess.

The demand for Cotton at Liverpool was good, on the 27th December, and the rates had slightly increased. Breadstuffs were in tolerable request, at prices favoring the buyer.

THE FIRING INTO THE PROMETHEUS—The outrage discountenanced by Lord Palmerston. A dispatch from Washington (says the Baltimore Sun,) states that despatches have been received from our Minister at London, covering his correspondence with Lord Palmerston upon the subject of the outrage upon the American steamer Prometheus, by being fired into by the British brig of war Express. Lord Palmerston disavows the conduct of the captain of the Express, and gives such assurance of the feelings of his Government as to apparently preclude the possibility of any misunderstanding arising between the two countries. It is also understood that Lord Palmerston, will at once give practical effect to the Clayton and Bulwar treaty, by withdrawing from the Mosquito protectorate.

KOSSUTH'S FUTURE MOVEMENTS. The Legislatures of Pennsylvania and Massachusetts, have by joint Resolution, invited Kossuth to visit the capitals of those States as their guest. He has also been invited by the Legislature of Indiana to visit that State; and the Senate of Rhode Island have passed a Resolution unanimously inviting him to that State.

It was understood that Kossuth was to leave Washington on Monday last for Annapolis, whence he will go to Harrisburg, and thence to Pittsburg, where he will spend several days. He will next proceed to Cincinnati; and he is said to be anxious afterwards to visit Indiana, Illinois, and New Orleans.

A DARK PLACE. We find the following paragraph drifting about:

"At Chapel Hill. (N. C.,) according to the American Almanac, there were but thirty-nine clear days from June, 1850, to May 1851, the rest (326) being recorded as "cloudy." There is probably no other locality in the Union, or in Europe, where there are so many cloudy days. There were 194 clear days, according to the same work, at Green Lake, Wisconsin, in 1850. At Cincinnati, in 1850, they had 143 clear days, 171 variable, 51 cloudy, which is below the usual number of clear days."

We had no idea that Chapel Hill was such a cloudy place, and would never have believed it had we not seen it in print. Only forty, save one, clear days in the course of eleven months—a dark region truly. We don't wonder that the students are accustomed to use in greater or less proportions, such artificial stimulants as are deemed essential by some persons for the dissipation of those disagreeable visitors yclept Blue Devils. Such cut throat weather imperiously suggests anti-fogmatics and other remedial agents. And we are bold enough to assert that it was very probable under the influence of these counteracting elements, that the above cloudy paragraph first saw the light. It has the flavor of that Java Coffee which was raised in Caswell county—out of a convenient barrel, and is doubtless the sport of some indolent youngster at the Hill who saw "thro' a glass darkly."

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE GOVERNOR. We publish to-day a proclamation from the Governor of the State notifying the people that the measure of constitutional reform known as "Free Suffrage" will come up for consideration before the next General Assembly, and if approved by a vote of two-thirds of each House will be submitted to the direct and immediate decision of the masses for ratification or rejection. We have heretofore had occasion, when discussing other subjects, incidentally to express an opinion favorable to this measure. We wish the people to give to it that earnest attention which its importance demands. Let them examine it in all its bearings, and we feel confident that they will through their representatives give it their approval at the next session of the Legislature. We entirely concur in the suggestion of the Raleigh Standard when it says: "We hope the people will have an eye to this measure in bringing forward candidates for the Assembly."

THIRTY-SECOND CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 7, 1852.

SENATE.

Mr. Clemens presented the petition of William Scott Haynes, one of the commanders of the Lopez expedition, praying Congress to equip a vessel to proceed to Spain to bring home the pardoned Americans; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

Mr. Sumner presented a petition from Boston, praying that the charges upon American exhibitors at the World's Fair be paid by the United States.

Messrs. Wade and Brodhead presented the memorials of persons whose claims were rejected by the late board of claims upon Mexico, and asking the establishment of a new board.

Mr. Fish presented the resolution of the New York City Councils, tendering to the United States a lot of ground in that city on which to erect a mint, which was referred to the Finance Committee.

Other petitions and memorials, reports, &c., were presented.

Mr. Gwin moved that the petition praying the restriction of flogging in the navy should be taken from the table, and moved its reference.

Mr. Stockton addressed the Senate against flogging being adopted as a punishment of American sailors.

Mr. Badger continued the debate, in reply to Mr. Stockton, and the subject was finally postponed until Monday.

The Senate then adjourned until Friday.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

At 1 o'clock the House was called to order and the journal read.

Shortly afterwards Mr. Carter introduced Gov. Kossuth and announced his presence in the House.

Mr. Speaker Boyd welcomed him, and invited him to a seat.

Kossuth, in the following brief and appropriate remarks, acknowledged the distinguished honor thus conferred upon him.

Sir—It is a remarkable fact in the history of mankind, that while, through all the past, honors were bestowed upon glory, and glory was attached to success, the legislative authorities of this great Republic bestow honors upon a persecuted exile, not conspicuous by glory, not favored by success, but engaged in a just cause. There is a triumph of republican principles in this fact, Sir. I thank, in my own and in my country's name, the House of Representatives of the United States for the honor of this cordial welcome.

On motion, the House then adjourned until Friday.

A vast number of members and others then pressed around Kossuth, and were introduced to him.

FRIDAY, January 9, 1852.

SENATE.

Mr. Hunter reported a bill making provision for the temporary reception of the books saved from the Congressional Library; which was subsequently passed.

Mr. Rusk reported back the House resolution for the confirmation of certain contracts for the transportation of the mails in California and Oregon; which was ordered to a third reading.

The principal part of the day was spent upon the private calendar.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

This being private bill day, the House passed thirteen private claims, and then, proceeding to the consideration of business on the Speaker's table, referred several executive-department communications to appropriate committees: among these was the report of the returned United States officers of Utah.

A motion to re-consider the vote of some days since to order the territorial laws of New Mexico and Minnesota to be printed was made by Mr. Johnson, of Arkansas, which was debated at considerable length, to a late hour, between Messrs. J. for, and Bayly, of Virginia, against it.

"PECULIAR FACTS" COMING OUT.

A Challenge from Kossuth to Captain Long—The Same Withdrawn and an Apology Made.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7, 1852. All the circumstances connected with the alleged difficulties on board the United States steam frigate Mississippi, after she started with Kossuth and companions for this country, as reported under the authority of an attache to our papers, are gospel truths, and are on record in the Navy Department, and will be furnished when called for officially by Congress. The thing went so far that Kossuth challenged Captain Long, but subsequently withdrew the challenge and apologised. This apology sealed Capt. Long's lips—for, among men of honor, retraction and apology close the lips of both parties. Still the facts occurred, although suppressed for the time. It was a series of petty insults and vexations continued from day to day.

[We give the above, remarking that we have confidence in its authority. It only goes to prove what we said in effect, at the time of these alleged difficulties, that it was nonsense to expect perfection from Kossuth, any more than from any other man—he being human like all the rest of us, and, therefore, liable to similar feelings, misapprehensions, &c. But the nobleness of the true, the honest and the brave man comes out in the subsequent ample acknowledgment and apology when once seeing his own error and the wrong done a friend. Let others imitate the example. Baltimore Sun.]

STATE AND NATIONAL CONVENTIONS. It will be seen by the report of the meetings of the National Democratic Committee, which assembled at Washington city on the 29th ult., and closed its sessions on the 1st., that Tuesday the first day of June has been selected as the day and Baltimore as the place of meeting of the National Democratic Convention.

We agree with our friend of the Standard in regarding the representation of North Carolina in that Convention as a fixed fact. She should be and she will be present there. It is equally certain that a State Convention will be held prior to the holding of the National Convention, for the purpose of appointing two delegates from the State at large—for the nomination of a Gubernatorial candidate, for the interchange of sentiment between members of the party residing in different sections of the State, and for many other proper and beneficial purposes. We think that this Convention should be held sufficiently long before the meeting of the National Convention to allow time to ascertain whether the delegates appointed can attend, or in case they cannot attend to allow of the appointment of others who will. We think a month before would be time enough, and would therefore suggest the first Tuesday in May as the time for holding the Convention and Raleigh as the place. We will, of course, defer our judgment to almost any body, but we want to start the movement, and we think that the time and place we have mentioned will be found to accord with the views of the party generally.

County Courts will be held in all the counties composing this district, between now and the second week in March, which will afford our friends an opportunity of appointing delegates to the State Convention, and of taking some action in regard to the appointment of a delegate to represent the District in the Baltimore Convention. Wilmington Journal.

DEATH OF KOSSUTH'S MOTHER. We learn that Kossuth received a telegraphic despatch last night informing him of the death of his mother, caused by the anxiety and depression consequent upon the persecution and imprisonment of her daughters at Vienna. This event will give to the sympathy already so active in the cause of Hungary and its noble and eloquent representative a more impressive character. It gives to his presence amongst us a more solemn feature, surrounding in some degree his person with the charm that belongs to the idea that God chastises those most whom he loves best, and for whom he reserves ultimately the highest rewards. If there be on this earth a case in which the victim of affliction can realise this consolatory blessing, without being withdrawn from the active scenes of life, or without feeling his energies impaired, we may be permitted to hope that it is that of the man who pleads sincerely the cause of his oppressed country, in whose service he has risked all that is dear to him. May God give the heart of the great and eloquent Kossuth the power to receive such chastisement, and to improve it for the good of the principle which he represents!

EMIGRATION FROM NORTH CAROLINA TO CALIFORNIA. We understand that a considerable emigration of slave owners with their slaves is going forward to California from North Carolina, who are versed in the business of gold digging. A party of twenty-three North Carolinians arrived here yesterday, in the cars, with twenty-nine slaves, who are about to take passage in the Isabel for Havana, purposing to take the overland route. Charleston News.

[Correspondence of the Baltimore Sun.]

WASHINGTON, January 9.

The supper last night at the Jackson Association passed off with great eclat, in perfect good order, and to the satisfaction of every body. Between seven and eight hundred persons sat down to a sumptuous supper, richly provided with all the delicacies of the season that the market affords, and set out with great neatness, evidently by the hand of an artist. It was, as a supper, as good as the Congressional dinner at the National.

The occasion was graced by the presence of a large number of ladies, who are always a sign of peace wherever they are, and a surety of propriety on the part of the sterner—I mean the chewing portion of creation.

Kossuth spoke with great warmth and eloquence, and with consummate skill, selecting for his topic American history, and paying a just tribute to the statesman that have illustrated our national rise and progress. After having fully proved that we are a power on earth whose rights are to be respected, he gave "intervention for the sake of non-intervention," which was received with great applause.

A similar sentiment was given by the committee on toasts, (which, by-the-by, seemed to have lacked neither pepper nor salt,) in the shape of "the American statesman who intervened in the Quintuple treaty against our rights on the ocean, for the sake of non-intervention." This of course brought Gen. Cass out, who delivered a fine eulogy on Jackson, and said something different from what he is reported to have said. I heard him myself. He did not say that after the election of a President by a party, it is the duty of the defeated to support him as if he had been their own choice, or words which could bear that construction.

What Gen. Cass said was that if a man who had been the chosen leader and standard bearer of a party, was thrown aside, (of course by the same party, for Gen. Cass was addressing a democratic association,) it was still his duty to support that party zealously, in the ranks. The announcement of this sentiment was of course greeted with thundering applause.

"Young Democracy" being then drank in a bumper, Judge Douglas was loudly called for, and made a speech which found a responding echo in the heart of every member of the association, and the party of which it is so able an exponent.

Judge Douglas reviewed the history of the democratic party—of course in a democratic sense to a democratic audience, from which in the most logical manner must follow democratic consequences. He agreed with Gen. Cass that somehow or other the people of this country are in favor of a change of administration, a thing which, but for the lateness of the hour, I should have telegraphed you as news, if I had not thought that you might have obtained it from other sources. Judge Douglas, after a full exposition of democratic doctrines and principles, sat down amid loud hurrahs.

Gen. Lane made the next speech, and a good one it was, and loudly it was applauded.

The corriphas having done, Kossuth retired at a late hour, and with him the majority of the ladies, who had come to illumine the company with their sunshine. The party broke up about midnight.

Gen. Cass, in company with Governor Kossuth, called to-day (by appointment) on Mr. Clay.

[Correspondence of the Baltimore Sun.]

WASHINGTON, January 7.

I see, from your correspondent "B," that it is said here in Washington, on good authority, that Kossuth seeks for himself, and those that have come with him, a permanent home. Let me assure you, on equally good authority, that Gov. Kossuth does not seek a home here, and that his faith in the ability of his country to regain her liberty and independence remains unshaken. Kossuth will return to Europe under any circumstances, and has no concern whatever for the means of his own subsistence anywhere.

Kossuth is very well satisfied that this country will not intervene in the affairs of Europe—at least the Government will not intervene—but he has not the most remote idea, on that account, to desist from attempting the rescue of his country from the yoke of Austria and Russia. The words despair, discouragement, or even doubt are not in his dictionary. Gov. Kossuth is a classical character, who will never seek an asylum for himself and his countrymen; but prefer rather to die in defending the liberty of his country.

The Baltimore American, in relation to the alliance between England and the United States, says:

"There are some journals in this country—and we have noticed their language with surprise—that express great admiration for Kossuth and sympathy for his cause, and would have Congress make the declaration he requests for the sake of its moral force—urging further that if it were disregarded by Russia we need not go to war on that account, and being out of the reach of the Russian and Austrian bayonets, we could make the declaration without fear of dangerous consequences. This species of moral force may find its fit representative in the dunghill cock that crows in defiance of all from whose attacks he is safe.

No; let us look the matter full in the face. If the combined despots of Europe, with three millions of armed men, shall determine to assert their mastery over the Continent, and arrange a new balance of power to suit themselves, absorbing a nationality here or a sovereignty there, and if the three hundred millions of subjects constituting the masses of their population, choose to submit to this arrangement, what business of ours is it to interfere? England may protest, and protesting must fight; for she is mixed up with continental affairs, and her existence would be menaced by the new combination and its movements. But it would be for herself she would fight; and we will fight for ourselves whenever the safety, the dignity, or the glory of the Republic is involved and requires it.

THE STRIPED PIG UNDER A NEW NAME. A letter from a traveller through Vermont states that while he was sitting in a a village tavern, another traveller came in, and stepping up to the place where the bar once was, intimated that he would like a glass of brandy. "Don't keep it," was the gruff reply. The traveller was off in quick time. Presently an old farmer came in, and blustered up to the landlord, when the following dialogue ensued: "Good mornin', Landlord"—"Good mornin' Squire." "How is your family this mornin'?" Pretty smart, thank 'ee." "Is the baby well?" "O yes," very; would you like to see it?" "Well, I don't care if I do." "Walk into the kitchen, Squire, Mrs. B. will be glad to see you." So out they go, says the traveller, and return after a very short visit to "the baby," who seems to have kissed them rather roughly, judging by the manner in which they licked their chops.

DIED.

In Smithfield, Johnston County, on the 10th instant, MRS. JULIA A. TELFAIR, wife of Dr. A. F. Telfair, after a severe illness of four days. This sudden and unexpected calamity has fallen heavily upon a family of six young children, none of whom are old enough to appreciate the loss of a fond and indulgent mother; and upon a kind and affectionate husband, who is thus bereft of a most devoted wife, and on whom has devolved the care of a family so young. May that God, in whom he trusts, strengthen, comfort and assist him! [COM.]

IMPORTANT TO FAMILIES!

S. CRANE'S

Patent Compound Wash Mixture.

For Washing Clothes—Also, for Washing, Cleaning, and Beautifying Painted Surfaces, the Walls, Ceilings and Entries; the Halls, Parlors, and Rooms of Private and Public Buildings; the Fronts, Doors and Windows of Fancy Dwellings; the Pews and Interior of Churches; Furniture; the Berths, State Rooms and Cabins of Steamships, Steamboats, and Packet-Ships; Passenger Cars, Brasses, Iron Railing, Glass or Metallic Surfaces, &c., &c.

WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction, and destined to effect an entire revolution in the business of the laundress—being an improved Preparation for Washing Clothes perfectly, with astonishing facility and dispatch, and without injury to texture or color. Every family, of whatever size, can do all their washing in less than one hour, without the labor of rubbing, pounding, bleaching or the friction of a machine, thus saving time, expense and labor, and securing exemption from the diseases caused by the exposure and fatigue incident to the usual mode of Washing, while Clothing itself will be saved from the wear and tear of the wash-board and friction, and last much longer.

The undersigned, having purchased from the Patentee, the sole right and interest for the State of North Carolina, in his Patent Compound Wash Mixture, hereby informs the Public, that he wishes to dispose of Family or County Rights for the same.

Persons living at a distance, wishing to procure the right to make and use this Valuable Preparation, can do so, by remitting FIVE DOLLARS to me, at Raleigh, which amount will entitle them to a family right; which right shall be sent by mail immediately, with the proper directions to make and use the same. I am in possession of a large number of certificates from Ladies and Gentlemen of high standing, not only in this State, but in Maryland, Virginia and South Carolina; but, I deem it unnecessary to fill a long Advertisement with them, unless requested, as the article will speak for itself, and is so favorably known in all the Northern and Southern States.

I aim to visit all parts of the State at as early a day as possible, to give the Public an opportunity of testing its value.

JOHN J. CHRISTOPHER, is my authorized Agent for this City during my absence.

WESLY WHITAKER, Jr., is the General Travelling Agent.

Feeling satisfied by the use of this Mixture in my own Family, that it cannot fail to please all who try it, I invite all to call and see or send in their orders to

Important to Millers & Mill Owners.

THE Undersigned would respectfully inform those engaged in the Milling Business in N. C., that he keeps constantly on hand, and will supply at the shortest notice, that almost invaluable article

YOUNG'S IMPROVED PATENT SMUT AND SCREENING MACHINE.

The only Machine of the kind that has stood the test and given satisfaction to the public. It has surplanted every Smut Machine yet offered in the State, more or less of which has been taken down to make room for it. The public need fear no imposition, as there are now some 280 Machines running in N. C.; and I wish to offer no other references than the gentlemen who are using them, whose expectations have been more than realized in their performance. It not only thoroughly cleanses the Wheat of smut, but also purifies it of all other substances, almost to perfection. It takes up but 4 feet square in the Mill, and requires but little power. It is warranted for five years against breaking or wearing out, and also to retain its cleaning qualities for that time.

There are a number of these Machines through which 100,000 bushels of Wheat have been cleaned, and they have never been out of order one day.

There was awarded to it the Premium at the Maryland State Fair, and a Premium with a Silver Medal, at the Fair of the Maryland Institute, at Baltimore, last Fall.

For the Cure of

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, CROUP, ASTHMA, WHOOPING COUGH AND CONSUMPTION.

This invaluable remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs has attained a celebrity from its remarkable cures, never equalled by any other medicine before. Other preparations have shown themselves palliatives, and sometimes effected notable cures, but none has ever so fully won the confidence of every community where it is known. After years of trial in every climate, the results have indisputably shown it to possess a mastery over this dangerous class of diseases, which could not fail to attract the attention of Physicians, Patients, and the public at large. See the statements, not of obscure individuals and from far distant places, but of men who are known and respected throughout the country.

The widely celebrated Surgeon, Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York City, says:

"It gives me pleasure to certify the value and efficacy of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which I consider peculiarly adapted to cure diseases of throat and lungs."

Dr. Perkins, the venerable President of the Vermont Medical College, one of the eminently learned physicians of this country, writes, the Cherry Pectoral is extensively used in this section, where it has shown unmistakable evidence of its happy effects upon pulmonary diseases.

HANOVER, OHIO, April 3, 1850.

Dear Sir: I wish I could tell all that suffer with a cough, what your Cherry Pectoral has done for me. It does seem they might be benefitted by the information. I had a lung fever which left my lungs weak and inflamed. Being very feeble and unable to gain strength at all, my friends thought I must soon sink in consumption. I had no appetite, and a dreadful cough was fast wearing me away. I began to take your beautiful medicine, by the advice of a clergyman, who had seen its effects before. It eased my cough at first, and gave me rest at night. In less than a fortnight I could eat well, and my cough had ceased to be troublesome, my appetite returned, and my food nourished me, which soon restored my strength. Now, after five weeks, I am well and strong, with no other help than your Cherry Pectoral. Yours with respect, JULIA DEAN.

I hereby certify that the above statement of my wife is in conformity with my own views of her case, and her cure by Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. JOSEPH DEAN.

The above named Joseph Dean, and Julia, his wife, are personally known to me, and implicit confidence may be placed in their statement.
